

OFFICIAL LANGUAGES IN CANADA

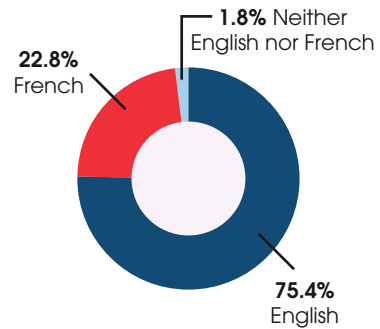

FRENCH AND ENGLISH ARE THE LANGUAGES OF INCLUSION

Population by Mother Tongue, Canada

*OVER 215 OTHER LANGUAGES:
The most important, Mandarin, was spoken by 610,835 people (1.8%)

Population by First Official Language Spoken, Canada

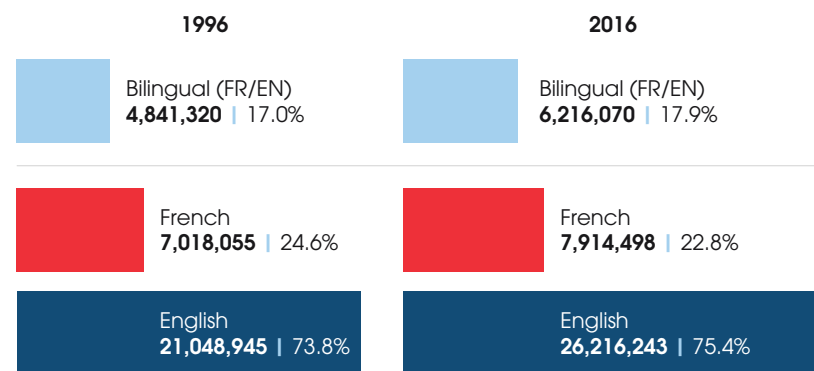

FRENCH AND/OR ENGLISH ARE SPOKEN BY 98.2% OF CANADIANS

Source: Statistics Canada, 2016 Census.

OFFICIAL LANGUAGES AND BILINGUALISM ARE AT THE HEART OF CANADIAN IDENTITY

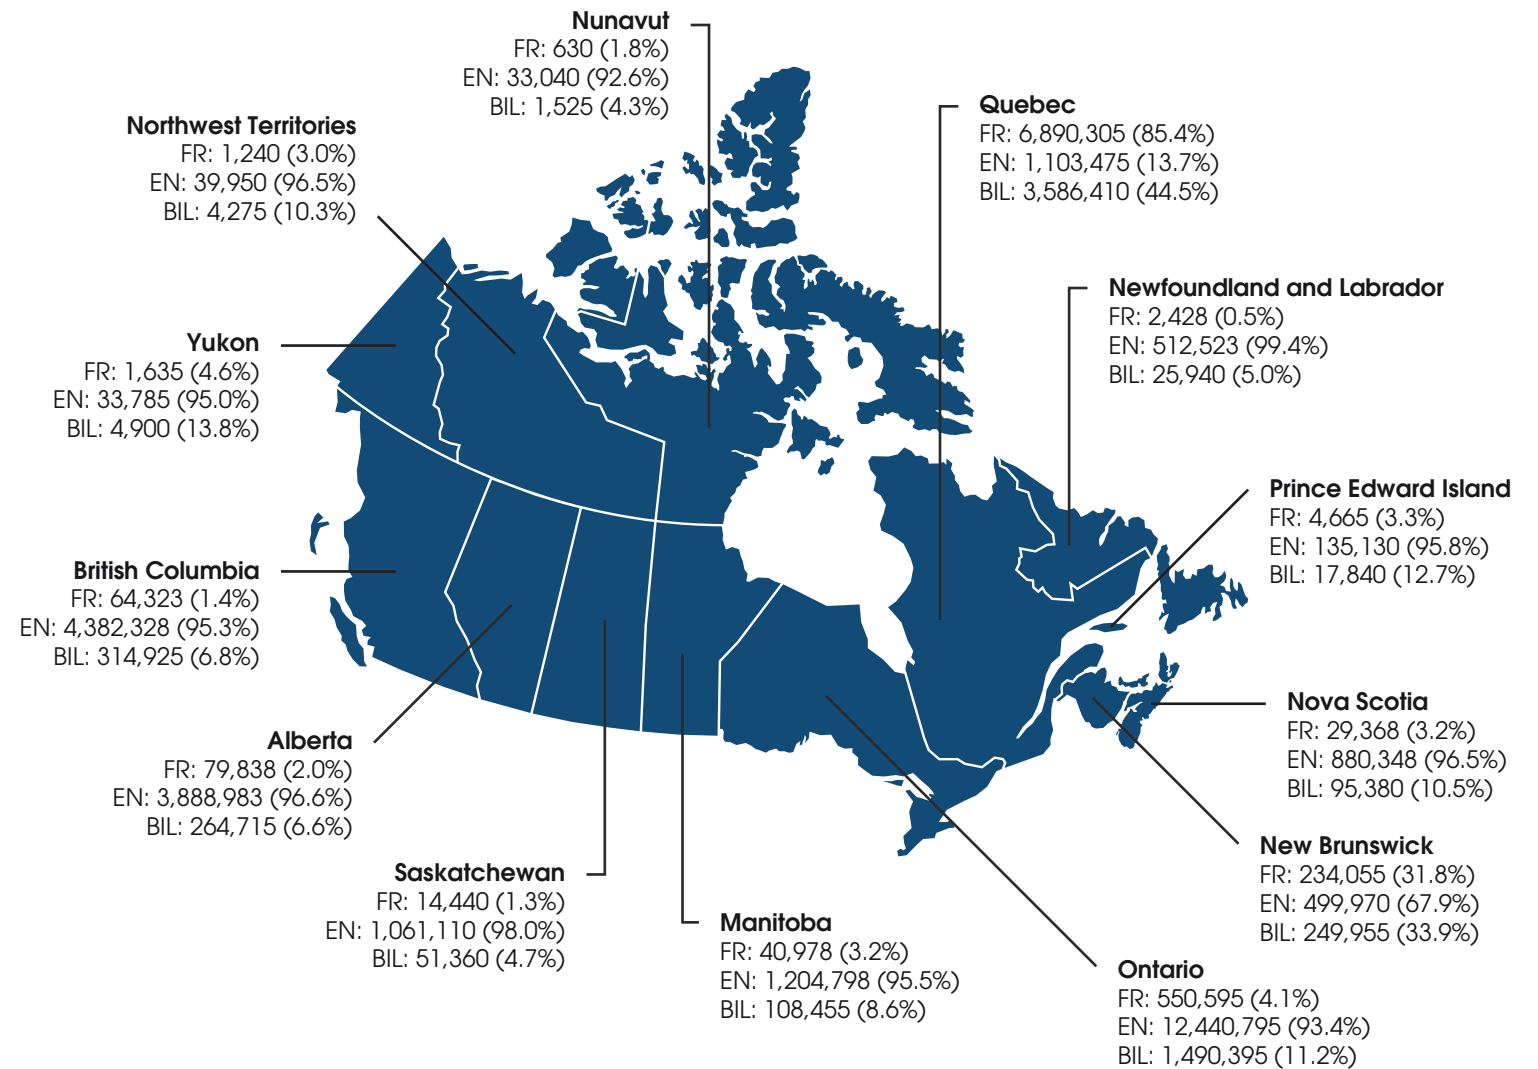

Population by First Official Language Spoken and Bilingualism, Canada

Sources: Statistics Canada, 1996 and 2016 Censuses.

THE DEMOGRAPHIC PICTURE VARIES BY PROVINCE OR TERRITORY

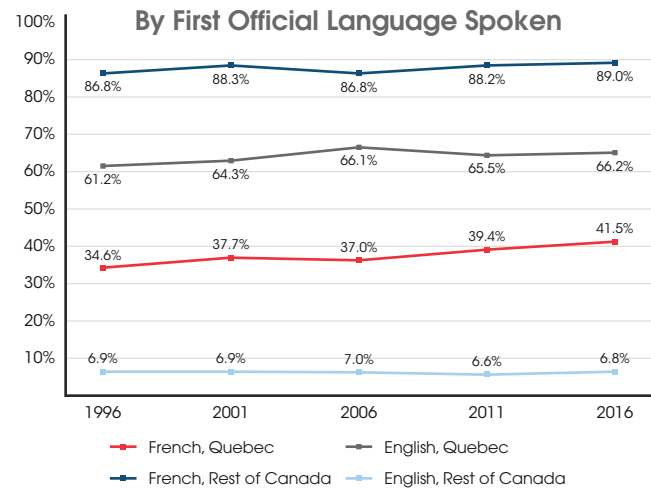

Population by First Official Language Spoken and Bilingualism, Provinces and Territories

Source: Statistics Canada, 2016 Census.

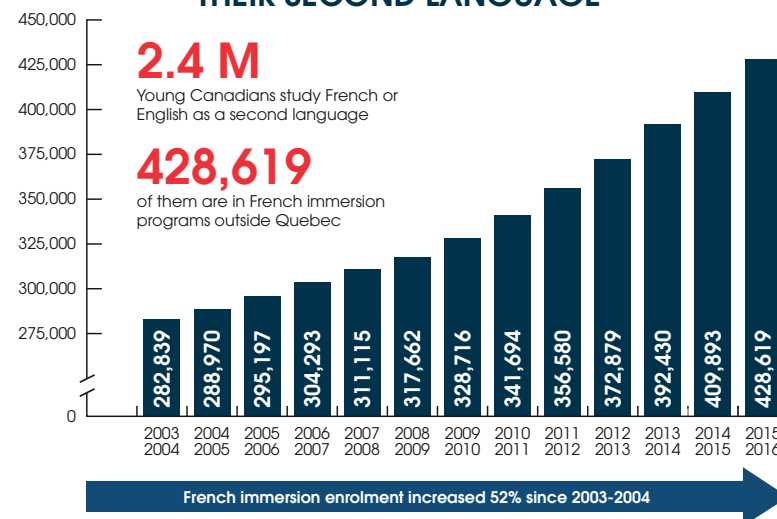

BILINGUALISM VARIES CONSIDERABLY BY GROUP

By First Official Language Spoken

Sources: Statistics Canada, 1996-2016 Censuses.

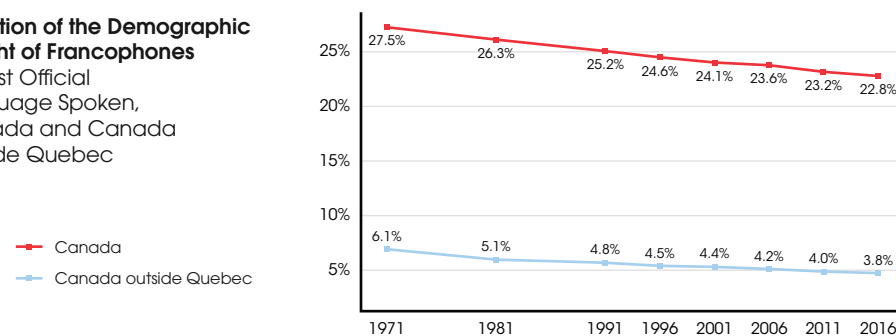

MORE AND MORE YOUNG PEOPLE STUDY THEIR SECOND LANGUAGE

Sources: Statistics Canada, 2003-2016.

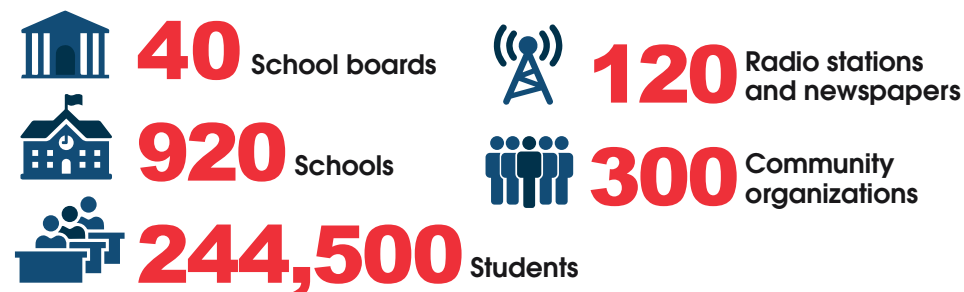

THE DEMOGRAPHIC WEIGHT OF FRANCOPHONES IS DECLINING

Evolution of the Demographic Weight of Francophones by First Official Language Spoken, Canada and Canada outside Quebec

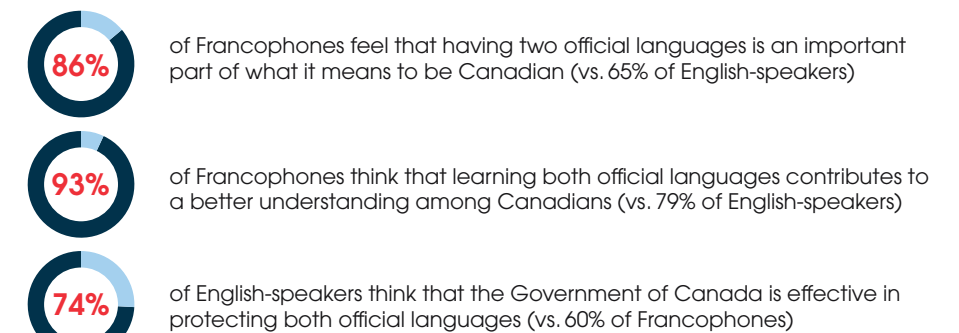

Sources: Statistics Canada, 1971-2016 Censuses.

SUPPORTING MINORITY COMMUNITY INSTITUTIONS ENHANCES THEIR VITALITY

Sources: Statistics Canada, 2015-2016. CRTC, 2018. PCH, 2016-2017.

THE MAJORITY OF CANADIANS PERCEIVE OFFICIAL LANGUAGES POSITIVELY

Source: Ad hoc Research for PCH, 2016.